

Orientation programme by United Skill Development Organization, Delhi.
Organized by Global Skill Enhancement Cell, VVFGC

9th-April-2017

On 9th April, 2017 at 11 am, United Skill Development Organization, Delhi in association with University of South America conducted an orientation programme on employability skills which needs certification in our college. The programme was inaugurated by Prof. H.K.Shivaram, Head, Department of commerce and Management, Prof. Vijaya Gowda, Team leader of USDO, Bangalore branch and members Prof Chaitra and Prof. Akila were also present on the occasion.

The programme was organized by Prof Lavanya, co-ordinator of Global Skill Enhancement Cell, Vidyavardhaka First Grade College, Prof Reena Thomas and Prof Syed.M.Khazi were also present in the programme.

The team leader and members of USDO addressed the BCom and BBM students of our college who have enrolled for internship in various certificate courses and guided them by providing complete information by highlighting the importance of course which enhances the skill and knowledge of our students through practical experiences in various industries. They also intimated the students to do their internship for 3 months in any industry according to courses they have opted and after completion they will be issued certificate of internship which can be used as an added advantage for their career and placement.

